RULES OF BEHAVIOR

1. Registration is required of all volunteers. We accept registration in person at the Volunteer tent or electronically at greatdayvolunteer@gmail.com. You will receive confirmation of receipt.
2. Volunteers do not represent the GFWC Oviedo Woman's Club in legal or public relations manners.
3. Volunteers are expected to wear modest clothing. No short shorts or plunging necklines.
4. We expect that the behavior and conduct of our volunteers will be modest and respectful of other volunteers, club women, civil authorities, and patrons of Great Day in the Country.
5. Volunteers will wear their volunteer badges to identify themselves for the event. This entitles them access to the hospitality room at the United Methodist Church. No access will be granted without a badge.
6. We will attempt to place you in your area of interest but you may be asked to assist in an area that has a higher need.
7. NO alcohol, drugs, vaping, smoking or unlawful transactions. Please remember that we sincerely appreciate your time and energy throughout the day!

ALL VOLUNTEERS NEED TO CHECK IN AT THE VOLUNTEER BOOTH BEFORE REPORTING TO WORK. THE VOLUNTEER CHAIR AND/OR THEIR COMMITTEE WILL GUIDE YOU TO YOUR ASSIGNMENT.

Those needing confirmation of volunteer hours, bring your stamped card back to the volunteer booth along with the form needing certification before leaving.
